Environmental Learning for Kids – ELK & Denver Youth Naturally
Personal Conduct Agreement

It is the purpose of the Personal Conduct Agreement to set standards and guidelines for students participating in any and all of Environmental Learning for Kids programs including Denver Youth Naturally. The standards set forth in this agreement are in place to provide an atmosphere that is conducive to individual growth and experiential learning. If any of the below listed behaviors are displayed, disciplinary action may be taken. Discipline may include, but is not limited to, being sent home, loss of privileges, removal from the group, or release from the program. The disciplinary action will match the offense in a constructive manner and a change in behavior will be expected. We are committed to helping every student successfully complete the program. This is important to us and we expect the same commitment from every student.

INAPPROPRIATE BEHAVIORS:

Please initial the following behaviors to demonstrate understanding

- Inappropriate sexual behavior and/or harassment
- Engaging in verbal abuse (name calling, ethnic or racial slurs, or derogatory statements or vulgar or obscene gestures) directed towards any individual or group of students or volunteers
- Promoting and/or involvement in gang or gang-like activity
- Possession of a dangerous weapon in accordance with the State Law
- Wearing of clothing that displays vulgar or offensive language, ethnic or racial slurs
- Use of alcohol, illegal drugs, or tobacco products of any kind (also covers abuse of non-prescription drugs)
- Bullying or threatening behavior towards fellow participants, volunteers or staff (include all physical abuse)
- Theft of any kind
- Endangering your life or the lives of others
- Not following the guidelines for any of the activities

I understand and accept the following conditions for participating in Environmental Learning for Kids and the Denver Youth Naturally program.
